IMRF Thailand Academic Chapter

Foreign national participants as paper presenters at IMRF International Conferences have turned out to be a natural phenomenon ever since the inception of IMRF. A simple truth, so to say, IMRF International Conferences have become the most preferred platforms creating a record of participation of paper presenters from more than 50 countries in the world, wherein a good number of foreign national participants have left a record of marked attendance for more than 3 times looking to the fact that IMRF has carved a niche of its own work culture and organizational brilliance for the benefit of those who choose to be huge, especially foreign national participants. Many a feedback session has a recorded report of the voice of the foreign national participants/presenters that IMRF is the best of its kind in providing a platform for promotion of academic interest and research elevation in different disciplines accordingly with its rich resources of education, technology and influence.
